ANNUAL GARDENING COMPETITION 2015

WCC hosted the third annual Gardening Competition on Saturday 31 October 2015 at the Greenhouse in Vermont. The gardening competition is an extension of WCC's ongoing greening initiatives towards increasing sustainability in the Overstrand. A total of thirty gardeners entered this year, but we hope to have twice this number in 2016.

harvesting rain water in any available container, and gardening in really small spaces.

Judges' requirements for excellence included use of recycled items, like the use of old crates to combat a mole problem,

Congratulations to all the participants.

The National Lotteries Commission funds this WCC project to raise awareness of sustainable lifestyles in the Overberg.
